

COUNTY BOARD IN REGULAR MEETING

PURCHASING AGENT AUTHORIZED TO WITHDRAW ALCOHOL FOR
CO. HOSPITAL; ROUTINE WORK OCCUPIES BOARD'S ATTENTION.

There was $549,810.59 in the county treasury at the end of March, according to the report presented by County Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain at the supervisors' meeting held at Redwood City Monday of this week. Monthly reports were received from other county officers and ordered filed.

Only one bid was received for the oiling of La Honda road. The bidder was J. J. McHugh, the price stipulated 4 cents per square foot. The bid was rejected as too high.

R. F. Chilcott of Redwood City appeared as representative of the Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco and asked for the abandonment of certain roads at San Carlos. A hearing in the matter was set for May 2d.

County Surveyor George Kneese submitted plans and specifications for retaining walls on the La Honda and San Gregorio roads. County Clerk Elizabeth M. Nash was instructed to advertise for bids for the work.

County Purchasing Agent E. H. Wender was authorized to sign all papers required by internal revenue and prohibition regulations for the withdrawal of alcohol to be used at the county hospital.

The county surveyor was instructed to draw up specifications for repairs on the Halfmoon Bay road.

A bid of $95 for the painting of the fireplace on the courthouse was rejected as too high. The matter will be taken up later.

The board authorized Supervisor Brown to appoint a special traffic officer temporarily for the highway between Belmont and San Mateo while construction work is going on there. The man will work Sunday only.

A considerable number of claims against the county were audited. The board will meet again April 18th.

P. J. SULLIVAN WINS SUIT OVER GROCERY STORE

The suit of P. J. Sullivan vs. W. L. and H. F. Maher was heard Tuesday in the superior court at Redwood City and decided in favor of the plaintiff. The case went by default. Sullivan sold the store to the Mahers in May of 1920, and claimed the defendants failed in their payments. An attachment was placed on the store a few days ago, and it will now be sold to satisfy judgment.

FIVE INJURED IN ACCIDENT AT COLMA

Two Cars Skid on Wet Pavement and Go Into Ditch Together.

Five persons were injured Sunday about midnight, when two automobiles collided on the highway at the corner of School street, Colma. Three of the injured were brought to the South San Francisco Hospital. Their names were R. Ravetto of San Jose, who suffered lacerations of the left leg and severe bruises about the body; George Bacchio of San Jose, who had a broken left leg, and John Uglione of 591 Twenty-fifth avenue, San Francisco, who sustained cuts and minor injuries. Uglione was driving the car in which the three were riding.

The driver of the other car was E. L. Malsburg of Palo Alto. Malsburg was accompanied by his wife. These two suffered only slight cuts and bruises, and after emergency treatment by Dr. A. H. Rankin of Daly City were able to proceed to their homes. Both drivers were reticent as to how the accident occurred but, according to Constable Landini of Daly City, who investigated the accident, there was every evidence that both cars were traveling at a high rate of speed and one or both skidded. After striking each other the machines went into the ditch. Both cars were badly damaged.

COLMA POSTOFFICE SCENE OF ROBBERY

Registered Letters and Small Sum in Change Is Loot Secured by Thieves Monday.

The postoffice at Colma was robbed early Monday morning, the loot secured being twenty-four registered letters and small change amounting to $1.38. The postoffice at Colma is kept in the drug store of J. W. Mowry. Mr. Mowry has stated that the registered letters were taken from a cigar box, this box having served as a repository for registered letters for nearly a quarter of a century.

Peculiar features of the robbery are that the thieves made no attempt to steal anything in the store except the letters and the small amount of change taken. Several hundred dollars' worth of real bonded whisky, besides a quantity of narcotics worth several thousand dollars, were left untouched. For some reason they left over half the money they might have taken, $1.50 being left when they took $1.38. This money was in a cash register in the drug store.

There is every indication from the way in which the thieves worked that they were familiar with the interior of both the drug store and postoffice.

Entrance was evidently obtained with the assistance of a passkey, as there was no evidence of either windows or doors being forced. Late Wednesday afternoon several of the stolen letters were found between the drug store and the next building. They had been opened and then thrown away as not containing anything of value to the thieves. Postal officials are now working on the case.

This is the fourth time the Mowry store has been visited by robbers since moving to its present location last fall.

COURSING AT SAN BRUNO OPENS WITH BIG ATTENDANCE

The coursing park at San Bruno was reopened last Sunday with a number of events on the program. There was a record attendance at the tournament and all seemed satisfied with the matches on the afternoon's program.

The recent difficulty with the board of county supervisors was settled by the management of the coursing club paying a license fee of $600, and it is now announced that matches will be held every Sunday afternoon until further notice.

RAISE IN GAS RATES SET FOR LATER DATE

The date for the increase in gas rates allowed by the Railroad Commission to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, as announced in last week's issue of this paper, has been postponed by the commission. It was at first set for April 12th, but owing to an application for a rehearing filed by San Francisco, Oakland, and seventeen other cities of central California, the going into effect of the first order was suspended.

RAID BY FEDERAL OFFICERS REPORTED IN THIS CITY

It is reported that federal officers raided a house on Commercial avenue Monday afternoon of this week. It is said that a still was discovered in the basement of the house and confiscated. No report of the raid was made in the San Francisco papers, who get reports of such affairs daily from the federal court in the city, and rumor has it in town that the officers were "fixed" before leaving town.

FINE NEW RESTAURANT OPENS IN THIS CITY

The Fior d'Italia, South San Francisco's newest and finest restaurant, was opened for business at 318 Grand avenue Saturday night. The place will compare favorably with San Mateo county's finest eating houses. A. Bradat, the proprietor, has spent a considerable sum in remodeling the place and fitting it as a high-class cafe. The proprietor has announced that he has engaged the services of one of the best chefs in California and that even the fastidious need not hesitate to take their friends here for a meal.

CITIZENS CONTINUE TO BACK CAMPAIGN FOR CIVIC DECENCY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

That there is no cessation of the interest being taken by the citizens of this city in the fight The Enterprise is making to have the town cleared of "blindpiggers," "bootleggers," and various other lawless gentry at present plying their trades here to the disgrace of this city and its officials and police, is proven by the letters that continue to reach The Enterprise office. There is no mistaking the temper of these communications, or denying the fact that the town is thoroughly aroused and the respectable element of its residents solidly in favor of a municipal housecleaning.

Among the letters received this week is an especially appealing one that The Enterprise would like to publish but does not, as the name of the writer is not signed and no anonymous letters will find a place in these columns. Its appeal arises from the fact that it comes from one who declares herself a mother and states that she has suffered "many a heartache" because of the operations in this city of those who persist in peddling liquor in defiance of the law. This writer touches, also, on a point that is worth consideration, that much of the illicit liquor selling here is caused by the indiscriminate granting of licenses for "soft drink" selling, regardless of the reputation of those applying for such licenses or whether they are known to have made a practice of selling liquor in the past in violation of the law.

Below will be found several of the letters received.

Editor Enterprise: I have been reading with interest your editorials in The Enterprise on the selling of liquor in violation of the law in South San Francisco. I have also read the letters you have received from citizens of the town who approve the stand you are taking in the interests of law and order. Nobody knows better than myself how "rotten" things are here for I have lived here many years and know practically everybody in town and also all the business firms. I wish to add my approval to that you have already received through these letters. I will say that I have talked this matter over with many of my friends and neighbors and not one has anything to say but that you are right, that the city trustees and police officers are either asleep on the job or else do not care how things go.

It seems to me that the trustees are afraid of taking any stand against liquor selling here. So many are engaged in the business that the trustees are afraid of making many enemies in town. Perhaps they have their eye on votes and don't care to take any steps for fear of losing their jobs. But the point that strikes me is this—the longer things are allowed to go on as they are the worse they will get. Something will have to be done some time. Why not now?

April 8, 1921.

Editor Enterprise: Allow me to add my mite in commendation of the stand you are taking for law and order in South San Francisco. Other towns are at least trying to enforce prohibition. Why not here?

SAN BRUNO POOL ROOM IS HELD UP BY GANG

Proprietor and Several Patrons Are Victims of Five Bandits.

Joseph Sammut's pool room at San Bruno was held up Saturday night about 10 o'clock by five men, who afterward made their escape in an auto that awaited them outside. Just the amount of the booty secured is not known, but the robbers rifled the cash register of $4 in change. The proprietor and a number of patrons of the place were covered by a pistol in the hands of one of the bandits, while the other members of the gang went through their pockets. A considerable amount of small change was taken.

The five men in the machine were seen early in the evening driving about town. City Marshal Gaudette states his attention was drawn to the men as they seemed to be strangers, but he saw no reason to be suspicious of them. The five entered the pool room and played pool for some time. Suddenly one of the gang drew a pistol and covered those in the room. Their work done, the men, after warning those in the room against sounding an alarm, sprang into their machine and escaped. By the time local police officers were notified, no trace of the men or the machine was to be found.

Miss Rose Gouzenes and Miss Marjorie Tava attended a ball given by the Pacific Telephone Company employees last Friday night at the Scottish Rite Auditorium in San Francisco.

tended to keep those places from selling booze, as they would lose their license if they did sell it. Up to the present time no licenses have been taken away. Booze selling goes on night and day and nothing is done. I know of a number of families in this city that have children in need of necessities, while the money their fathers make goes to blind pigs and gambling joints. The trustees and cops don't care, but if some of their own relatives were suffering in the same way it would be different. If two or three of the trustees had sons drinking in these booze joints or gambling their money away in gambling joints, how long would such places stay open?

If any attempt had been made to put such places out of business it wouldn't be so bad, but nothing has been done and if our present officials are allowed to take their own way probably nothing will be done. It's up to the citizens of this town to demand that their trustees and police officers do something to deserve their salaries. They will if they have to, and probably if they don't have to they won't.

From the Woman's Club

Editor Enterprise—Dear Sir: At the last regular business meeting of the Woman's Club, a resolution was passed endorsing the stand The Enterprise is taking in an effort to better local conditions. Although our organization is non-sectarian and non-political, we have always stood for civic improvement.

SECOND EXPLOSION STARTLES SO. S. F.

Blast on Hill North of Town Breaks Windows; Thought Work of Boys.

Another mystery explosion started South San Francisco and the surrounding territory early Sunday morning. The blast this time was much more violent than the one that awakened the echoes in the evening about a week ago and was heard as far south as San Mateo. This second explosion was so heavy that many windows at the high school and in the surrounding neighborhood were shattered by the concussion. Later a large hole was found in the side of the hill a short distance north of the high school. Beside it was twenty feet of burnt fuse. Persons familiar with blasting equipment have stated that the fuse is of a slow-burning type and must have taken a half hour to set off the powder after being lighted. This would indicate that the person or persons setting off the giant powder or dynamite are acquainted with the handling of explosives and gave themselves plenty of time to get well away from the scene.

It is now generally conceded that those responsible for the explosion were boys who had stolen the powder or dynamite and set it off in a spirit of mischief. Such explosives are carried at a number of the local industrial plants and it may have been taken from one of these, though as yet none have reported such theft.

CHAMBER TO ENTER BIG B. B. CAMPAIGN

Will Advertise This City in Great "Be a Booster" Drive Started in San Francisco.

The South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce expects to take part in the big booster and advertising campaign about to be launched in San Francisco in the near future. The matter was taken up at the meeting of the Chamber held at the city hall Tuesday evening. It was the unanimous opinion of the members present that this city should be advertised along with the other towns that will take part in the big booster drive. Just what form that advertising will take was not decided, but the secretary was instructed to keep closely in touch with campaign headquarters in San Francisco. To assist him in keeping tab on what other towns are doing and formulate plans as to what is best for South San Francisco, a committee, consisting of E. C. Peck, P. R. Thompson and W. J. Martin was appointed.

It was brought out at the meeting that A. F. Pick of San Francisco, a man who owns a considerable amount of property in this city, will start building here soon as a result of efforts put forth recently by the Chamber to convince property owners that now is a propitious time to build houses here. Mr. Pick has stated that he will build three five-room houses in block 118 on Commercial avenue, the work to start in about two weeks. Mr. Pick has stated, also, that in the near future he will construct a flat or apartment house building in block 124 on Baden avenue.

A communication from the Chamber of Commerce of Dallas, Texas, called attention to the convention of Junior Chamber of Commerce members to be held in that city soon, and urged that a delegate be sent from the Junior Chamber of this city. The letter was referred to L. E. Adams, newly elected president of that organization.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to help in the organization of a local amateur band, reported that the band had been started and is now meeting for practice regularly.

The committee on the new directory for this city reported that preliminary work had been finished and that Willis L. Hall, who will get the directory out for this city, has begun the work of gathering information for it. In response to a communication from the Memphis (Tenn.) Chamber of Commerce, the local Chamber went on record as endorsing a movement to have the Chamber of Commerce of the United States investigate the reason for the continued high price on certain building commodities. The letter stated that in the face of lower prices of lumber and many other things used in building, window glass, paint, plaster, and a few other articles named persisted in retaining a high level.

The Chamber endorsed the candidacy of William R. Wheeler for a position on the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Some time was taken up at the meeting by a discussion of the advisability of the movement started by students at the local high school to give the school an individual name. This was brought up by Wesley Dotson, a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, who asked the approval of the parent organization. L. E. Adams, principal of schools and president of the junior organization, stated that the local school was called South San Francisco or South City high school merely because it had never been given any other name. He showed that this name was unwieldy for school purposes because of its length. Several other members spoke on the matter and, as practically all seemed to favor the proposition, the Chamber endorsed it. The student body is now offering a prize of $5 for the best name suggested, the contest being open to all.

It is probable that no thought of damage entered their minds, but the fact that it occurred close to the Morazzini dairy makes it remarkable, considering its force, that none of the animals on the place were injured.

The city is now offering a reward of $100 for the detection of those re-

GREAT SUCCESS SCORED BY OPERA CO.

MANY FROM PENINSULA AND ALL CENTRAL PART OF STATE LOUD IN PRAISE; WONDERFUL VOICES HEARD IN WORLD'S CLASSICS.

The residents of the bay region came, saw and were conquered by the Chicago Grand Opera Company at the civic auditorium in San Francisco during the week of grand opera that began Monday night. Opening with a performance of "Otello" that placed Rosa Raisa firmly in the hearts of Californians, the first week of the opera company has proven a complete success musically, socially, and financially.

This part of the state has made good its claim to be the best musical center in the United States, west of Chicago. Crowded houses have been the rule each night. Tuesday night's attendance is declared to have broken the world's record.

The "Carmen" performance Tuesday night turned away thousands. Mary Garden has a wonderful voice, while her acting of Carmen has become classic.

No less remarkable was the reception given to Lucien Muratore, who proved his claim as the greatest tenor now on the operatic stage. Baklanoff, the other member of the big three, was in magnificent voice and made a splendid Toreador. Altogether it was a performance to live long in the memories of those who saw it.

Following the triumphs of Garden, Raisa, Muratore, and Baklanoff, came Wednesday night with the first appearance of Hempel and Bonci. It was the first time this section had ever heard this wonderful pair together, and the result was a musical sensation. The critics wrote columns in praise of their singing in "Traviata."

The conducting of Giorgio Polacco is another feature of the Chicago company's performances that has won the plaudits of the thousands of opera-goers.

Next week the repertoire promises all the stars singing on various nights and such operas as "Rigoletto," "Cavalleria" and "Pagliacci," "Thais," "Lohengrin," "L'Elisir d'Amore," "Monna Vanna" and "Tosca."

LOCAL Y. M. C. A. TO CLOSE THIS WEEK

Because of Industrial Quiet Management Decides to Close Indefinitely.

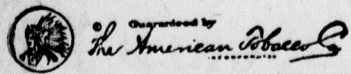

It has been announced that the Y. M. C. A. rooms in South San Francisco will be closed and the "Y" activities in this city suspended for an indefinite period. The cause given is the countrywide industrial slump which has affected a number of the local factories and caused the laying off of men. A considerable number of these men, who were patrons of the local "Y" reading and recreation rooms have moved away, with the result that attendance has become light. Coupled with this is the fact that many pledges of financial support have been cancelled because of business slowing up.

The matter of continuing to keep open the local Y. M. C. A. was gone into thoroughly by the local committee of management in conference with Regional Industrial Director Pehler recently, and it was decided that under present circumstances the patronage at the place did not justify the expense of keeping the rooms open. Secretary I. W. Larimore received notice Wednesday to close the rooms. He will be busy for a few days winding up the institution's affairs. It is believed that when industrial conditions get back on a normal basis a Y. M. C. A. will be reopened in this city. Much of the equipment in the hall belongs to the San Francisco "Y" and will be shipped to the city. The playground apparatus will be left here for the benefit of the children of the town. The reading and recreation rooms in the Martin building were opened

ANNOUNCEMENT

The next edition of the "Blue and White" will be edited by the class of December, 1924. The regular editor and staff will have nothing at all to do with that edition, and will not be responsible for the contents.

All of which is the outcome of over-working the editor. He figures he needs a rest, and has devised the following plan: Each class, starting with the low freshmen, will put out an edition of the "Blue and White," with their own editors, managers, and proofreaders. The low freshmen have already started on their paper, and say that they will prove now which class has the most ability by the next edition of the "Blue and White." It is presumed that all of the other classes will follow suit, and when each class has had an edition, the regular "Blue and White" editor and staff will take charge again.

CHAMPS!

Champions! That is a word that we have longed to be able to earn for a long, long time. At last we have won the right to the title. With it comes encouragement to all athletic activities. No more can the pessimists say that "it can't be done." It has been done. The smallest school in the league has defeated the largest, and if in volley-ball, that we have never played before, why not in other sports that we know more about? The girls have proven that we have material for champion teams, so let's go after the other sports. The example has been set by the girls in volley-ball.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE JUNIOR OF COMMERCE

On Tuesday a regular meeting of the Junior of Commerce was held. Mr. Adams was elected president, succeeding Charles Smith. Elmer Vaccari suggested that the body take up the problem of eliminating the habit of many of the students of writing on the walls and desks. The school improvement committee appointed Mr. Vaccari a committee of one to investigate ways and means to do this. A motion was made and seconded that the secretary bring up the subject of changing the name of the school at the boosters' meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. The school improvement committee reported that Thomas Doak had been appointed to find the price of the trees to be planted inside of the new fence to form a windbreak. The trees are to be purchased by popular subscription, and the tree will be named after the person subscribing. A meeting of the advertising committee was held after the meeting and plans for an entertainment were formulated.

SOUTH CITY TAKES CHAMPION- SHIP FROM SAN JOSE

The South City volley-ball team won the championship of the C. P. A. A. L. last Friday, by defeating San Jose high school in two close games. The score in both games was 21 to 17. The game was played on the San Mateo court.

The stars of the game were Elizabeth Coffinberry, with her wonderful fielding, Captain Winifred Shaw in serving, and Genevieve Schmidt in said to be able to put the ball over the net better than any girl in the county. Evelyn Mayer helped greatly in bringing home the bacon.

Here is the championship team of the C. P. A. L. for 1921: Winifred Shaw (captain), Evelyn Mayer, Genevieve Schmidt, Elizabeth Coffinberry, Myrtle Mullin, Bernice Holbrook, Anna Carli, Alice Elmers, Laura Baldini.

San Mateo prepared a delightful dinner for the visiting teams. The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers of each high school's colors: purple for San Jose, yellow for San Mateo, and blue for South City.

ATHLETIC FIELD FENCE NEARING COMPLETION

Two sides of the new twelve-foot fence around the athletic field have been completed, and the third side is well under way. Several of the high school boys have offered their services in assisting the American Legion in the labor.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

The sophomore class gave a surprise party to Charles Smith at the home of L. E. Adams, Thursday evening, March 31st. With the assistance of Elmer Vaccari, Charles was ushered in.

The party proved to be a great success, and the evening was spent very happily in playing games, singing and dancing. Refreshments were served at a late hour and the party broke up about midnight.

HOCKEY STARTS IN HIGH SCHOOL

Another new sport started in the high school last Monday with the first practice of hockey. A game with San Mateo is scheduled for Friday. If the girls go after this game as they did volley-ball, it looks like another championship.

REGULAR SOPHOMORE MEETING.

The regular meeting of the sophomore class was held on Monday, March 4th. It was called to elect a new secretary-treasurer to fill the place left vacant by the resignation and departure of Charles Smith. Elmer Vaccari was elected. The class colors were chosen—gold and white.

Oh, what a day will Sunday be, If reformers have their say? The things they want will not suit me, I'll have to move away.

The women have a vote, and now They'll make an awful fuss, And when they make our Sundays blue

I'll sure begin to cuss!

Gag the poor canary bird,
Chloroform the cat;
Turn out all the light,
And hang a crepe upon the flat.

Pianos or victrolas can't
Be played in any key,
But if you have a parrot
He can sing "The Rosary."

Put away your poker deck—
The game cannot be played.
You'll go up for twenty years
If you but play Old Maid.

Abolish pipes and cigarettes
Or you will start a fight—
You're not allowed to shave yourself,
You cannot eat a bite.

Close up all the picture shows—
You have to go to church;
And if you meet a pretty girl
You must leave her in the lurch.

Upon your automobile
You must hang the sign "For Sale,"
And it will be unlawful
To drink that ginger ale.

Muffle up the baby,
They must not hear it cry!
Yes—we all will have to bear it,
FOR IT'S AGAINST THE LAW TO

PRACTICAL RECIPES

CORNEAL MAY BE SERVED IN MANY APPETIZING WAYS

Most persons who eat a noontime dinner like at least one hot, hearty dish for supper. Those made largely of cornmeal are not only nourishing but very appetizing as well, when made by a skillful cook.

When mush is called for in a recipe the following method of preparing it is easier and better than the usual way—that of bringing water to a boiling point and then stirring the meal into it:

Lumpless Cornmeal Mush

Put the cornmeal, cold water, and salt together in the top of a double boiler. No stirring is necessary. Put the top of the double boiler into the lower part and allow the mush to heat slowly, cooking half an hour, or longer, if convenient. Many persons cook it for four hours. Just before serving remove the top of the double boiler from the lower part, and boil the mush for two or three minutes. In boiling it at this time there is no danger that it will lump, and this extra cooking improves the texture and the flavor.

Cornmeal Fish Balls

2 cups cold white cornmeal mush.

1 cup shredded codfish.
1 egg.
1 tablespoon butter.

Pick over the codfish and soak it to remove salt, if necessary. Combine the ingredients and drop by spoonfuls into hot fat. Drain on porous paper. These codfish balls compare very favorably in taste with those made with potato, and are prepared more easily and quickly. The mush must be as dry as possible. This makes twelve fish balls.

Cornmeal Mush With Pork

1 pound lean pork, part meat and part bone.
1 cup cornmeal.
1 teaspoon salt.
½ teaspoon powdered sage.
Water.

Cook the pork in water until the meat can be removed easily from the bone. Remove the meat, cool the broth, and remove the fat. Reduce the broth to about a quart, or add water enough to bring it up to this amount, and cook the cornmeal in it. Add the meat, finely chopped, and the seasonings. Pack in granite bread tins. Cut into slices and fry. Beef may be used in the same way. This serves six people.

Cheese Pudding

1 quart boiling water.
1 tablespoon salt.
½ cup milk.
½ pound yellow cornmeal.
½ pound cheese.

Into the boiling salted water pour the cornmeal slowly, stirring constantly, and allow it to boil for ten minutes; then add most of the cheese, and cook for ten minutes more, or until the cheese is melted. Add the milk, and cook for a few minutes. Pour into a greased baking dish, and brown in the oven. This dish is improved by grating a little hard cheese over the top just before it is baked. This pudding can be cut into slices when cold and fried. This serves four to six persons.

Cornmeal Scrapple

1 pig's head split in halves.
2 cups cornmeal.
Salt and sage.

Follow the foregoing directions for cooking cornmeal with pork, but use double the amount of water.

MILK IMPORTANT ITEM IN DIET HINTS FOR CHILDREN

A good breakfast to start them off—milk, cornmeal mush, apple sauce. It makes them fit for school and fit for play, say home economics specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Milk, and plenty of it, makes them grow—a quart each day, if possible. Put it on their cereal and in their cups. Make it into soups, puddings, or custards for them.

Whole milk is best, of course, but skim milk is good if there is a little butter in their meals. Cottage cheese is good, too.

No coffee or tea—not even a taste. Leave them for the grownups. Milk, cocoa, not too strong, and fruit juices are the drinks for children, and plenty of water always.

Fruit they enjoy, and they need it, too—baked apples, apple sauce, thoroughly ripe bananas, prune, oranges, etc. Give them vegetables, fresh or canned. Plenty of fruits, and vegetables tend to prevent constipation. Use proper food and do not depend upon laxatives. The youngsters can't be well unless the bowels move regularly. Don't let them hurry off in the morning without attending to this duty.

Other foods a child needs: Good bread, whole-wheat bread, cornbread, well-cooked oatmeal, cornmeal, and rice are all excellent for children.

SUITS WITH SHORT COATS

In this suit a plaited skirt and short, straight jacket bear one another company in an ingenious adaptation of French modes to an American street suit. Any one will concede its good style and other good points, especially when the embroidered motifs on the short coat are under consideration. They appear at the front and back and on the sleeves, and the designer has gone so far as to make a special place for them by placing them against points cut in the material. A pretty satin girdle goes with that skirt, its ends supporting very handsome silk tassels and ornaments.

They help make strong boys and girls. Fats they must have, too. None is better than butter. Besides the butter on their bread, do not overlook the fat on meats, or in gravies and other food. An egg is good, too, or they may have a little meat or fish, but they do not need much.

Sweets are good for them—the right ones at the right time. Dates, stewed fruits, simple puddings, and sugar cookies are especially good. Give sweets at meal times.

Between meals let them have bread and butter, a cracker, or fruit. They won't spoil the appetite, and sweets will.

City Clerk Nettie A. Willits' report was incomplete, due to the fact that the auditors are still examining the records.

The water commission submitted a report covering a period of ten months, which showed a balance in favor of the city of $718.32. The commission also reported unpaid water bills slightly in excess of $200. The board instructed the commission to take the necessary steps under the existing ordinances to enforce payment of these unpaid accounts. The city clerk was instructed to write a letter of thanks to the water commission, commending it for the good work done in behalf of the best interests of the city.

City Attorney John F. Davis, reported that he had taken up the matter of the Peninsula Rapid Transit Company's rates discriminating against San Bruno with the Railroad Commission, and had received little or no satisfaction from that body. As the bus company claims it is losing money every month, the Railroad Commission is not inclined to take up this complaint at the present time. The board instructed Attorney Davis, however, to write to that body asking for a definite statement whether or not it would reopen the proceedings and give the people of San Bruno a hearing in the matter.

City Attorney Davis further reported that counsel for the plaintiff in the water system acquisition case had filed an appeal in the supreme court and that hearing on this case will probably come up in June.

City Recorder J. M. Custer reported the collection of $90 in fines during the month of March.

Plumbing Inspector E. Gibouret's report was accepted and filed.

The following building permits were granted: City Marshal T. E. Gaudette, Fifth addition, to build an extension on garage; J. H. White, Belle Air Park, to raise house and place a concrete foundation under same and also to add an additional room thereto; Frank Valentine, to build an extension on C. J. Sonegar's residence in Huntington Park; S. Lombardi, remodel milk house and put in concrete floors; to Mrs. Spielman, Belle Air Park, to build a cottage.

Among the various claims ordered paid was another to Robert H. Smith for a little over $13,000, part payment on the water system. This is the second payment and brings the total amount paid to over $31,000.

A communication was received from the Southern Pacific Company relative to the installation of the wig-wag signal at the Angels avenue crossing. The letter was laid over for future consideration at such time as the city decides to complete construction of the approaches to the crossing.

The Huntington Park Realty Company, in reply to a request from the board, gave a list of the amounts of insurance carried on the various plants for the present water system. As its letter did not show any insurance carried on the Belle Air plant, City Clerk Willits was instructed to write the company requesting that it place a small amount of insurance on this plant.

At the request of the city of Redding, City Clerk Willits was instructed to write to both Assemblyman Ekswold and Senator M. B. Johnson, apprising them of the stand of the board of trustees against the proposed senate bill which would restrict the levying of licenses by city governments.

Fire and Light Commissioner Patrick Kane reported that the fire bell had not as yet been installed in the new proposed tower. The board voted that unless P. Gouzenes, who so kindly offered to install same gratis, was able to do so immediately, the city would have the work done.

Trustee Dr. F. H. Smith, as commissioner of public welfare, reported that the benefit ball for disabled war veterans, to be given at Bellevue Tavern, had not as yet received the sanction of the American Legion. He stated that Legion officials informed him that the organization stood ready to sanction any movement of merit, but as yet were not satisfied with the backing of the benefit ball and therefore had not endorsed it.

A resolution was passed fixing the salary of the clerk of the health board at $5 a month.

The bond for the city marshal was accepted and filed. City Clerk Willits brought up the matter of additional equipment for her office, and was requested to submit figures of the total cost at the next adjourned meeting.

The city clerk was instructed to write to the Southern Pacific Company requesting that permanent repairs be made at the San Bruno crossing, as the condition of the crossing at the present time is deplorable.

There being no public discussion, the meeting adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening, April 20th, to consider the street work bids and other special matters.

TWO BIDS RECEIVED FOR STREET WORK

W. H. Paul and Federal Construction Company Submit Offers; Bids Taken Under Advisement.

The board of trustees met in regular session at the city hall Wednesday evening with all members present. The outstanding feature of the meeting was the consideration of bids submitted for proposed street paving.

Two bids only were received. Neither set a total for the entire job, figures submitted being for so much per unit. In round figures W. H. Paul of Martinez, Calif., bid $420,000 and the Federal Construction Company's figure was $382,000. The trustees took a recess and examined the bids, and upon returning from the recess referred both bids to City Engineer George A. Kneese, with instructions that he report on same at an adjourned meeting Wednesday evening, April 20th.

At the request of the city of Redding, City Clerk Willits was instructed to write to both Assemblyman Ekswold and Senator M. B. Johnson, apprising them of the stand of the board of trustees against the proposed senate bill which would restrict the levying of licenses by city governments.

Fire and Light Commissioner Patrick Kane reported that the fire bell had not as yet been installed in the new proposed tower. The board voted that unless P. Gouzenes, who so kindly offered to install same gratis, was able to do so immediately, the city would have the work done.

Trustee Dr. F. H. Smith, as commissioner of public welfare, reported that the benefit ball for disabled war veterans, to be given at Bellevue Tavern, had not as yet received the sanction of the American Legion. He stated that Legion officials informed him that the organization stood ready to sanction any movement of merit, but as yet were not satisfied with the backing of the benefit ball and therefore had not endorsed it.

A resolution was passed fixing the salary of the clerk of the health board at $5 a month.

The bond for the city marshal was accepted and filed. City Clerk Willits brought up the matter of additional equipment for her office, and was requested to submit figures of the total cost at the next adjourned meeting.

The city clerk was instructed to write to the Southern Pacific Company requesting that permanent repairs be made at the San Bruno crossing, as the condition of the crossing at the present time is deplorable.

There being no public discussion, the meeting adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening, April 20th, to consider the street work bids and other special matters.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO A HISTORY

An account of the action taken by this city's pioneer citizens for the protection of property against loss by fire forms an interesting and somewhat unique chapter in the city's history.

The first fire company was known as "Baden Hose Company No. 1," and was organized in 1893, with W. E. Wagner as foreman. This company was active for a time, but for lack of suitable equipment its members lost interest and the company became dormant.

On August 9, 1895, a meeting was held, which resulted in the organization of what was known as "The Citizens' Mutual Protective Association of South San Francisco."

The object of the association was stated in article II of its constitution, as follows: "This association, as its name implies, shall be strictly mutual. Its object shall be to provide ways and means for protecting the property of its members against loss by fire; to provide an efficient fire department, and to secure reasonable rates of fire insurance."

"Its protection shall be for the benefit of its members exclusively."

The following members were chosen directors: W. J. Martin, E. E. Cunningham, J. C. Eikerenkotter, D. O. Daggett, H. Michenfelder, George Kneese, and James Gibson. The officers were: W. J. Martin, president; H. Michenfelder, vice-president; E. E. Cunningham, secretary, and D. O. Daggett, treasurer.

The moneys required for the use and support of the association were provided by an assessment levied by the directors pro rata upon the real estate and personal property of members insurable against loss by fire situated in the town of South San Francisco, based upon the value thereof as fixed by the association. The values fixed by the association were practically taken from the books of the county assessor. The rate adopted was 35 cents on the $100.

The entire movement was purely voluntary. The association had no legal means or power for the enforcement of its tax levies, yet its demands were honored and the association carried on its work successfully for two years, during which time an efficient fire company was organized, equipped and maintained. One item of equipment provided for the fire department was a fire bell, weighing 246 pounds, purchased by President Martin from Gannett & Co. for $46.

The following named residents of South San Francisco enrolled as members of the association: W. J. Martin, C. L. Herbst, J. C. Eikerenkotter, E. E. Cunningham, W. T. Neff, George Kneese, J. L. Wood, Richard Harder, M. Foley, E. L. Bliss, William J. Gannon, Eugene Sutherland, Peter Lachele, J. P. Heneberg, William Kelly, John Kennedy, William Rehberg, A. Kluegel, P. J. Lynd, M. F. Healy, Pat Ferriter, D. O. Daggett, Frank Miner, J. Jorgenson, H. Michenfelder, Joseph Gibson, Peter Dann, Thomas O'Donnell, Walter Jeppeson, G. W. Bennett, Albert Gibson, F. M. Persinger, J. P. Newman, Dr. A. J. Holcomb, Dan Daly, Thomas J. O'Reiley, and H. H. Loomis. There were also a number of non-resident contributing property owners, not enrolled as members. Among the latter were Robert Wisnom, Etta M. Tilton, G. W. Hansbrough, N. Merriam, and Thomas Ahkman. The association was a successful experiment in voluntary co-operation.

The first general effort toward tree planting was in 1896. The pioneers realized that protection against the prevailing winds could be provided effectively through the planting of trees along the cross streets of the city. After some agitation and exchange of views, on January 22, 1896, the citizens turned out en masse and planted 700 trees on Spruce avenue, extending from Railroad to California avenue.

The electric railway down the peninsula was built and owned by Bernard Joost, who built the road from the city to Holy Cross Cemetery. It had its terminal at the city of the dead until 1896. On May 2, 1896, incorporation papers were filed at Redwood City for the reorganization of the San Francisco and San Mateo Electric Railway, with J. D. Spreckels and A. B. Spreckels as the principal incorporators, to extend the old Joost road from Holy Cross to San Mateo, with a branch from Holy Cross to the water front at South San Francisco. The Spreckelses bought Joost's rights and property, extended the road to San Mateo and the South San Francisco water front, and later sold out to the United Railroads of San Francisco.

It was in this same year (1896) that the Butler Brick Company was established. Thomas Butler in that year bought of the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company twenty acres of land at the north water front, and constructed thereon a modern brick-making plant. Butler made bricks for two years, when the brick trust paid him a bonus to close his plant. Later it was leased by Butler for two years, but is now dormant.

There were giants in those days. On April 10, 1896, John W. Church, who stood in his stockings a little over 7 feet high, was in the employ of the Western Meat Company as a laborer.

Fraternalism had its beginnings in this city in 1897.

On June 15, 1897, Lodge No. 7, Journeymen Butchers' Benevolent and Protective Association, was duly organized. The example set by the butchers proved to be good seed cast upon good ground, and this industrial town has come to be a fraternal city.

Following the butchers, in the course of time came the Woodmen of the World, the Improved Order of Red Men, the United Ancient Order of Druids, the order of Free and Accepted Masons, the Foresters of America, the Loyal Order of Moose, and the Independent Order of Fraternal Brotherhood.

This city's first big fire came on April 15, 1897, when five buildings were entirely destroyed. They were the Union Hotel, two buildings belonging to Billy Neff, next to the Union Hotel, and two store buildings adjoining the Merriam block, all on San Bruno road. The Merriam block was saved only by the strenuous efforts of the pioneer fire company.

This city's first dry goods store was opened for business on September 5, 1896, by the late Mrs. Dora Cohen. Mrs. Cohen was a remarkably fine business woman. Her success was assured on the day she opened the doors of her store. She was as active in the social as she was in the business life of the city—a shrewd, kindly, generous, and active woman. She was assisted in her business by her two daughters, Mrs. Ray Abrams (now Mrs. Kent) and Hannah (now Mrs. W. C. Schneider). She sold her People's Store to W. C. Schneider, its present popular and successful proprietor, and the People's Store in all the twenty-five years of its business life has had but two owners, Mrs. Dora Cohen and her son-in-law, Billy Schneider.

SAN BRUNO ASSALITA
DA CINQUE UOMINI

La stanza da biliardo di San Bruno fu la scena di un assalto verso le ore 10 Sabato sera, da parte di cinque uomini i quali allegerirono il proprietario Joseph Sammut, e diversi clienti di un considerevole ammontare di piccoli contanti.

Quattro scudi furono asportati dal registro. Quegli uomini vennero nel locale presto nella serata e giocarono al biliardo per diverso tempo, quando improvvisamente uno dei quali tolse il revolver di tasca intimo le mani in alto mentre i compagni andarono a ripulire le loro tasche.

I cinque fuggirono poi in una automobile aspettante per loro al di fuori.

L'UFFICIO POSTALE DI COLMA DERUBATO LUNEDI' MATTINA

L'ufficio postale di Colma e la farmacia furono visitati da ladri, presto Lunedì mattina e ventiquattro lettere registrate furono asportate insieme a $1.38 dal registro. Il capo posta Mowry ha detto che le lettere registrate sono tenute in una cassetta di sigari la quale e' stata adavita a tal uso per più di vent'anni. L'ufficio e tenuto nella farmacia del Mowry e niente fu toccato eccettuato il registro dal quale furono asportati i contanti. Nel pomeriggio di Mercoledì diverse lettere furono trovate fra la farmacia e l'edificio adiacente. Quelle furono gettate via essendo di nessun valore.

UNA SECONDA ESPLOSIONE CHE SCUOTE IL PAESE DOMENICA

Per la seconda volta, in una sola settimana South San Francisco fu scossa da una esplosione Domenica mattina, la prima essendo occorso circa una settimana appena.

Il colpo di Domenica fu di una tale violenza che nelle vicinanze della scuola superiore furono rotti parecchi vetri. Più tardi un largo buco fu, poi trovato nel pendio del colle vicino alla scuola. Si vuol credere che dei ragazzi abbiano operato tale esplosione per puro divertimento.

Gli ufficiali della città hanno offerto una ricompensa di $250 per informazioni conducenti all'arresto e convinzione della persona colpevole.

SARANNO CHIUSE
QUESTA SETTIMANA

Le stanze di lettura e ricreazione del Y. M. C. A. in questa città sono per essere chiuse indefinitamente. Questa decisione fu raggiunta questa settimana. La causa della chiusura viene attribuita alla partenza di molti operai che prima lavoravano nelle fabbriche di South San Francisco ed i quali a causa del perduto impiego hanno dovuto cercare altra dimora.

Il locale sarà sicuro amaramente rimpianto poiché aperto sul finire del 1919 e' stato la recezione di migliaia di uomini e giovanetti i quali avevano approfittato dei suoi privilegi.

Speed.

Airman De Romanet's new speed record—between three and four miles a minute—led Lieutenant L. W. Maynard, the air champion, to say at a dinner in New York:

"The new era that is upon us will be an era of unbelievable speed. Like the anecdote.

"A young man of 1950 A. D. was giving his girl an airing, so to speak, in a swift and powerful 2000-horsepower airplane.

"That's England we're approaching," he said. "British Isles, you know. Pretty little group they make, don't they?"

"I don't see them," said the girl anxiously. "Where are they?"

"Oh," said the young man, "we've passed them now."

Now would be a good time to get a group picture of the Democratic party. —Toledo Blade.

PAYS $20 FOR BEING DRUNK AND DISORDERLY

John Farrell, an employee of the steel mill, was up before Judge E. E. Cunningham Tuesday morning on a "drunk and disorderly" charge. The man was gathered in by Marshal C. C. Conrad for creating a disturbance in the northern part of town and using vile and abusive language while intoxicated. Asked by the judge where he had obtained the liquor, he stated that he drank from a bottle in the possession of a friend. Farrell was found guilty and fined $20, which he paid. At the hearing Marshal Conrad stated that this is not the man's first offense here, as he found him drunk some time ago and sent him home with a warning of what would happen the next time he was found in that condition.

ALARM TUESDAY MORNING MEANT LINE OUT OF ORDER

The alarm given by the new fire system at 5:30 Tuesday morning was caused, not by a fire, but by the wires of the fire alarm system coming in contact with the electric power line wires on Grand avenue. The power line in some way strayed at Magnolia and Grand avenues till it touched the fire system of wires. The result was one blast of the alarm horn which, according to the alarm schedule now published in The Enterprise, means line out of order.
